The Faith & Ecology conversation series invites persons of all faiths and spiritualities to gather to reflect upon and converse about a chosen word or topic for the month.

Various series and themes draw us into reflection and conversation on how faith and spirituality intersect with our lives and the natural world.

Please note that sometimes the third Tuesday falls on a day that has special significance to a particular faith tradition. We mean no disrespect but have a commitment for that time slot.

3rd Tuesday of the Month
7:00-8:30pm
